Lee Detrichstein is to appear under the management of Cohan and Harris in a play of his own called "Jean Paurel." The piece, which is to be produced in the fall, has little given out about its nature or theme.

"Search Me," the new farce by Augustin McHugh, is said to have made a favorable impression on the occasion of the first production at Long Branch and will be given a New York hearing in August.

"His Double," with Wilton Lackaye in the stellar role, is now being filmed by the Universal. Harry Myers is directing, while Rosemary Theby is playing opposite the great actor.

"POWDER PUFF GIRLS" MAKE GOOD AT ODEON

New Musical Comedy is Presented and Actors Are Clever.

The "Powder Puff Girls" Musical Comedy Company, which is playing an engagement at the Odeon theater, is presenting a tabloid musical comedy that is a feature from the fact that it is entirely new.

The piece revolves around Claude Allen, a German comedian, and Warren Beverly, an impersonator of Charles Chaplin, the world's greatest film comedian. They are surrounded by a complete cast including Miss Elsie Raymond prima donna; Wharton M. Wilkie, leading man; Don Moran, juvenile, and a bunch of dainty singing and dancing girls.

The pictures for today include "His Wife's Secret," an Essanay drama featuring G. M. Anderson, and a Mina comedy entitled "On the Job."
There will be a change of performance tomorrow.

A three-reel film comedy containing many original situations, an exciting love affair and a plenty of action is "Boys Will Be Boys," Es-sanay's regular service comedy, featuring Joseph Byron Trotten and Miss June Keith, which will be released July 27.

Reese Brothers' Africaner Company which opened at the Palace yesterday, has a blazing surburst of mirth, melody and exclusive innovations, excellent costumes and stage settings, and every detail worked out complete.
This company carries a band and orchestra.

The performance presented is in two acts, the first being a real minstrel and the second part presents perfect pictures of scenes and people of the Southland in the early fifties.
This is one of the best companies ever appearing at the Palace and patrons are assured of a genuine musical and comedy treat. The program will be changed Wednesday and Friday.

The General Film Company service is now used assuring a program of the very best pictures changing daily.
Beginning next Friday, chapter No.
1 of the great serial picture, "The Diamond from the Sky," will begin, featuring Miss Lottie Pickford and Irving Cummings. Ten thousand dollars in cash will be given to the person who submits the most acceptable suggestion for a sequel to "The Diamond from the Sky."
